Dear Sandra F. Garnett,

This letter is in response to a returned check that I just received from Eleanor Kurtz from the Office of Initial Patent Examination. On February 10th, I sent a $60 check for extension fees in response to your letter sent to me on January 31st. That check was returned to me. According to Eleanor, she could not find out what my check was for. I filled out the Notice of Insufficient Filing Fee form according to the instructions and sent that notice with my payment. The Notice of Insufficient Filing Fee form has no indication as to where or what the extension fee pertains to. I assume it is for my patent application no. 10/776,800. I've tried the internet and phoned the USPTO to seek help in this matter. After being directed to other departments several times, transferred numerous times, and disconnected every other time, I conceded to failure in seeking online or phone help. I'm now sending my payment, again, along with the original notice and the letter I received from Eleanor in hopes that all this information will find you or someone who can perhaps call me if they are unsure as to where this fee is to go before sending it back to me.
